CONTROLS

Our Process Manager software gives you a clear overview of all measurements, setting etc. per room, and is very easy to use. Possibility to configure 20 different graphs, and detailed graphical overviews per room.

Controls

The Limbraco VEC41 is a state-of-the-art computer system equipped with all possible measurements and controls which are applicable in the current way of mushroom cultivation. The VEC41 controller has a 7"color touchscreen which allows you the opportunity to change settings, gives you an overview of all measurements and valve positions in numbers and graphs of the corresponding room.

In combination with the Limbraco Climate Terminal (PC) and your tablet or smartphone you are in touch with your climate system wherever and whenever you want.

Our computer system is available for composting Phase I, II and III, growing rooms and watering system.

LIMBRACO

The VEC43 for CO² measuring shows you a very accurate representation of the CO² level in your growing rooms. The VEC43 is available with 8 or 18 inputs, depending your max. numbers of rooms. Both types are equipped with a dual outside measurement.

